ARTICLE VII. TRUSTEE POWERS

The Trustee shall have the power to sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any property of the trust estate, whether real or personal, at public or private sale, without order of court and without notice to any beneficiary.

The Settlor shall indemnify and hold harmless the Trustee from and against any and all claims arising out of the administration of this trust, except for claims arising from the Trustee willful misconduct.

No bond or other security shall be required of any Trustee named herein, whether original or successor, in any jurisdiction.

In the exercise of any discretion granted under this Article, the Trustee shall consider the beneficiary other resources known to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VIII. DISTRIBUTIONS

Upon the death of the Settlor, the remaining trust estate shall be distributed to the beneficiaries then living, per stirpes.
